UM SUMMER SESSION
TO END AUGUST 14

MISSOULA--

The second session of Summer Quarter ends Friday (August 14) at the University of Montana in Missoula.

Fall Quarter registration is scheduled for September 22-23, in the Harry Adams Field House, and classes will begin September 24.

Registration packets and University identification cards will be available in the Lodge September 15-22.

Administration offices will remain open between quarters.

The 1970 Summer Session enrollment was the largest in the history of the University, with over 3,200 students attending.

C.

Dr. Walter/Schwank, UM Summer Session director, attributes the success of the Summer Session to the high quality of the faculty - visiting and regular - and to the breadth and depth of academic offerings.
